Who owns Christmas Island?

The truth is, Christmas Island belonged to the British Government, not Singapore. Singapore was responsible for the administration of the island but had no territorial claims to it. Today, Christmas Island is home to the Christmas Island Immigration Detention Centre to detain and treat asylum seekers.

Did Singapore own Christmas Island?

Singapore was responsible for the administration of the island but had no territorial claims to it. Today, Christmas Island is home to the Christmas Island Immigration Detention Centre to detain and treat asylum seekers. It was also used as a COVID-19 quarantine facility from February 2020 onwards.
